HINDEBURG'S MOVE AGAINST RUSSIA WAS NOT EXPECTED

West Flanders Still the Scene of Heavy Fighting—Allied Battleships Off Coast Hurling Shells at Enemy Whenever Possible—German in the East by Offensive Again Retires Its Position—Line Now Midway Between German Territory and Warsaw.

London, Nov. 19.—The unexpected blow delivered on the Russian center by General von Hindenburg with the German army which had retreated from before Warsaw was the predominant feature of the news reaching London today from the eastern end of the war.

No change of importance had been recorded for some days past. In the western area, West Flanders is still the scene of heavy fighting. In spite of the weather conditions, the Germans appear to be holding their positions. The allied warships are still off the coast, hurling shells inland when opportunity offers. The Belgian army remains in the region where the floods have been the worst, and some despatches say that in certain places there have been the time being thrown back the Russian advance toward the German frontier of Posen. General von Hindenburg is the hero of the hour in Berlin. There is much criticism in Berlin of the German retreat from Warsaw, but it is the present marked reversal of form proves permanent. The German center doubtless will retrieve its reputation just as the allies received themselves almost at the gates of Paris. The German wedge from Posen would appear to have driven the Russian center more than fifty miles back from the frontier, so that the line is now about midway between German territory and Warsaw. Elsewhere along the eastern front the Russians, where they are not progressing, seem to be holding their positions.

In England, and especially London, turned its eyes from the conflict today to the region where the floods and best loved soldier, Field Marshal Lord Roberts, whose body, in the presence of King George, and all the military leaders not at the front, was placed at rest beside Wellington Nelson and other illustrious names in British history, in St. Paul's cathedral.

Brilliant Attack Made by British Troops and French Sailors Beat Germans Back

Enemy is Forced to Evacuate Schoorbaak, Belgium—Tentons Abandon Guns, Ammunition and Belgian Army Drawing New Supply of Officers.

Paris, Nov. 19.—A brilliant attack by British troops and French sailors on the Germans in the Scheldt estuary, Belgium, which is practically surrounded by the water from the broken dykes, according to news reaching here from the battle front, resulted in the loss of the flood only two roads were open to the town and one of these the British approached in two columns. It was a night attack and the Germans in the town immediately turned their attention to them. The blue jackets, who had made raids on flat bottomed boats, crossed the water and took the Germans in the rear for the first time in the one road still left open.

The Germans abandoned guns, ammunition and stores. There is some anxiety here as to just what happened at Chauvin Court, a village near St. Remy on the Lorraine frontier. On Thursday the French official communication reported that the French troops had captured the position, north of Chauvin Court, and yesterday's official statement said that the western part of this town had been blown up by Germans who apparently had mined the place before they retired. How the British troops suffered by this exploit is not known. Chauvin Court, which contained vast French military supplies, was still in the right bank of the Meuse. It had been occupied by the Germans for some time and with great readiness and enthusiasm.

The Belgian army is drawing a supply of new officers in haste from the Belgian civil guard. According to a member of the Belgian war office at Havre the civil guard is composed of men who have seen service in the army and are well qualified to become officers.

Lines are not yet available regarding the results of the mobilization of the Belgian civil guard of 1915 or regarding the call for volunteers and it is known that the young men refugees in Holland, England and France are responding with great readiness and enthusiasm.

Between the Cleve and the Aisne, the operations in the vicinity of Tracy le Val had a termination very favorable for our troops. It will be remembered that we took possession of this village several days ago. The day before yesterday the Germans endeavored to recapture it. We recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, softness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre and try as you will

WEDDINGS.

At Highgate, the bridegroom, yesterday afternoon, Rev. L. H. Wright united in marriage Dave Noyes and Miss Augusta Hoke, of North Edmonton.

IRONMONGER—HUTTON. The marriage took place on Monday night at 8 o'clock, at Mrs. R. W. Cautley's residence, 160th street, of Miss Margaret Hutton, daughter of Inverhew, Fifehire, Scotland, formerly of Grimsby, England, and the bride, who was a cream dress trimmed with insertion with a veil and white crepe champagne. From the bride's sister, Christina Hutton, Mrs. Alexandra Macdonald attended the groom. Mr. Cautley gave the bride away.

A reception of the friends of the bride and groom was held at the home of Mrs. R. W. Cautley, where supper was served. The table was decorated with white carnations, ferns and marguerites. The presents were numerous and costly. Mr. and Mrs. Ironmonger will reside in Wainwright.

DOUBLE WEDDING. The ladies, who some time ago, appealed to the board for material to sew for the poor, turned in seventy dollars' worth of garments, mostly warm—which are available to the needy at present. The Welfare office has a large stock of blankets and the poor were reported and it would seem that destitution is to be stemmed with success in the city.

Relief Work Meeting. At the November meeting of the Women's council of the United Aids, held in the Civic hall, although very few members were present, it was the usual Christmas effort. It may be that the Welfare league, with which the United Aids has joined forces, feels that they can not undertake anything further than they are doing at present. This in view of the fact that the machinery is running along smoothly is not to be marvelled at.

Then, I sent for three boxes and I kept improving until I was cured. While sick, I lost several pounds, but when I took 'Fruit-a-lives', I quickly regained what I had lost. Now I eat, sleep and direct well—in a word, I am completely cured, thanks to 'Fruit-a-lives'."

TEMPERANCE PEOPLE HAVE LITTLE REASON TO REGISTER A KICK

Montreal, Nov. 19.—The Gazette this morning publishes the following despatch from its London correspondent:

"There is little reason for the outcry of the temperance party against the war office in regard to the Canadian," said an officer here yesterday. "Only beer is sold, and the general restriction is very severe, as in the outlying parts of the island is only allowed to be sold from noon until nine o'clock in the evening. Any smuggling of liquor by soldiers during the campaign is heavily punished by the magistrates when discovered. The mayor of Salisbury recently commented at a meeting of the city council upon the moral condition in the city, in view of the facts that 100,000 troops are camped upon the plain."

The officer quoted had been in contact with all the troops, and he said he was glad to be able to speak highly of the Canadian contingent.

"Among the squad of recruits being shipped to Canada from the camp by way of Glasgow are several who transgressed the regulations forbidding beer consumption."

"Major B. Osborne of Berlin, Ont., has been appointed assistant provost marshal, with headquarters at the record office, Westminster."

EDMONTON DAILY CAPITAL

THE NEW OUTLOOK
THE WAR INVOKES

One thing is at least certain: the war should do to awaken from their mental apathy the people of Canada and bring them to a realization of the obligations which rest upon them to arrange the affairs of this country in such a manner as to give a chance and the average prosperity of the Dominion given at least a chance.

Without attempting to exaggerate any leaders or either party, it must be admitted that there has been a most deplorable—almost criminal—altitude of laissez-faire upon the part of the higher up in this Dominion toward the individual and struggling citizens whose average prosperity should have been the object of first and greatest solicitude in the making of the economic arrangements. This attitude has been apparent in almost all the ways. We see, for instance, great trade union organizations appealing for adjustment which would make possible the banishment of unemployment, and we see at the same time great corporate interests appealing for governments for bonuses in their private interests. To the untrained and uneducated governments turning a deaf ear. There is not, even yet, the slightest evidence to show that any of our various governments have taken seriously into consideration the problem of unemployment. No effort has ever been made to banish idleness with that of those who have a tendency to the upbuilding of some private fortune somewhere. At the same time we see the great corporations approaching governments with appalling regularity to receive endowments, grants, subsidies and gratuities, all of which are granted upon the presumption that the railways thus built out of government funds in a private hand, in some manner, promote average prosperity. The same attitude is shown in the corporations' terms and opening up sections of the country in a manner which permits the almost total absorption of the increment and industry in advance. We see the farmers, upon whose industry the whole Canadian system rests as upon a bed-rock, appeal governments with appeals for relief from a withering land and banking system, and we see them with all their tremendous earning power, turned away with a soft answer or some sophistry in a manner which prevents them from industry with that of those who have a tendency to the upbuilding of some private fortune somewhere. Following them we see a powerful manufacturers' association come to be deferentially received and then demands for the most careful consideration, while the bankers, who have the country swam down upon Ottawa with requests, but without means, that their franchise to handle the public's money as they see fit and to compel the public to take the money of their banks, and to compel the public to take the money of their banks in such amounts and upon such terms as the banks see fit to be ratified, corroborated, reaffirmed, amplified and copper-fastened.

The illustration could be multiplied in a thousand ways. The whole picture is one of obstinacy toward the big fellow and very little consideration for the little fellow. No such thing as a job man who—no matter how big a fellow—may be out of work is even considered. No such thing as a man who is unemployed is even considered. The railways, the banks, bank manufacturers, are taken care of; the arrangements are made from which they are enabled to tax the producers of the nation; the traffic will stand and the world is invited to look upon a picture of national prosperity which places the monetary, industrial and commercial power of the whole Dominion in the hands of fifteen or twenty men, who take the money of the rest of the country with that disastrous consequence to those by whose consistent and patient labors from day to day the country can alone become prosperous.

What Canada requires at this juncture is a new outlook upon the relative importance of the state of those whose individual prosperity makes up the sum of national prosperity.

HAND PICKING IN THE NAME OF HARMONY

Probably the best thing in public affairs in Edmonton for some little time past is the seriousness with which the Bulletin and the Journal take themselves to the task of presenting the electors of this city with a ready-made decision board for 1915.

"Harmony" is the name of the will with which they hope to conjure. After a year in which they have successfully opposed every action in the city hall, they now step forward with the declaration that what this city requires is harmony. Then, in the name of harmony, they have the people whom they have been shouting to go away back and sit down. The fact that the Bulletin and the Journal have, on every move to free the city from the gas monopoly and that those who have persevered in spite of the opposition of the Bulletin and the Journal stand in a position to see their principles triumph, apparently does not enter the consideration. All the Bulletin wants is for all those to whom it has been opposed to lie down and let the Bulletin construe a victory by default out of its damaged hopes. Does the fact that the Journal has never been within miles of representing public opinion in this city appear to enter into the consideration? What the Journal now asks in the matter of harmony is that the public to accept as a matter of wisdom of the oracle—the Bulletin—underlying the bi-partisan conspiracy of these two illustrious publications apparently being something into which the electors should not even inquire.

It is surely no flattery to estimate that the Bulletin and Journal place upon the self-sufficiency of the citizens of Edmonton who are gravely informed the public that they are the symposium of all wisdom who should be consulted in the naming of who should be a successor who eliminated in the name of harmony.

SHOULD BE OPPORTUNITY TO CARRY ENDORSMENT OF MAYOR McNAMARA

Whether or not a by-election will be held to fill the offices made vacant by the ousting of Mayor McNamara and Alderman East seems to be a much debated question, and Acting Mayor Smith, who now holds the mayor's chair, is not having been elected thereto, is in no doubt that as far as he is concerned an election will not be held if he can prevent it.

In this respect the grudging bulk of the electors will be far from sympathetic toward the attitude of Alderman Smith. An opportunity to express at the polls their complete endorsement of Mayor McNamara's action in the gas business would undoubtedly be welcomed by thousands of voters in this city.

Mayor McNamara's action in regard to the possible election has been more than commendable. It has been self-sacrificing. The judgment of the court having been given, and he having been ousted upon a technicality which makes any further action illegal, Mayor McNamara declared that he did not wish to let the city pay the expense of an election for such a short time, being content to trust to the good sense of the electors to understand that the action for which he was ousted was one for which he should have earned commendation rather than ejection. But election being possible at the time of the regular annual election, and it having become practically a formal vote of endorsement of the action of the mayor and the alderman whose name was associated with the election, it is not to be held if there is any manner in which it can be done within the rather clumsy technicalities of the law.

At any rate, all public-spirited and decent electors would like an opportunity to convey to Mayor McNamara their sincere belief that he was very badly used for having consummated a very worthy and altogether commendable civic act.

English Colonel Throws Bouquet to Canucks Now in Old Land.

HAVE MILLION MEN BY MAY
Believes Britain Will Have That Number in the Field by Spring.

Montreal, Nov. 18.—"Not only do the troops of the first Canadian contingent look like regulars, but they are regulars, and are absolutely ready for the front," said Colonel J. C. Gilbert, one of the British line regiments last night. After fighting at Mons, at the Aisne and at the Ypres, the Canadians during the first six weeks of the war the colonel is now in Canada on a special mission, the nature of which he cannot divulge. He believed that Canada should be proud of her troops. He had never seen a finer body of men either in the British, French or German armies.

Colonel Gilbert puts the number of British troops in France and on the continent at something over 200,000. He was asked when the number would reach a million and replied: "I have a million men in France by the first of May."

The colonel, when inquiry was made as to how far the British line extended, said: "About 200 miles." As to how many officers he included in the list, he said: "I have 100 British troops now in action. He said the number probably reached 10,000 or even 15,000 have fallen, are still many left. He added that he had known one second lieutenant who had died in a machine gun position, the signing of the war. Promotions are made automatically on the field, he explained, and no one who is promoted fails the next rank takes his place, and the more casualties in a regiment, the more rapidly are promotions made, which are confirmed by the war office.

FEDERATED W. C. T. U. HOLDS ITS MEETING IN METROPOLITAN CHURCH

A meeting of the federated W. C. T. U. was held in the metropolitan church, south side, on Tuesday afternoon. After devotional exercises, led by Mrs. Sheldon, the minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Cook. A very helpful and practical paper on "Prohibition" was given by Mrs. Baum, in which she suggested many ways each individual could help in the coming prohibition campaign. Every member present was asked to help in the coming prohibition campaign. Every member present was asked to help in the coming prohibition campaign.

I can help by taking a decided stand for temperance work.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered those who had helped to make the afternoon a success, after which the meeting was closed with prayer.

NO SIGN OF WET MELT OF DOMINION

Canucks Barracked in Salisbury Plain Which is Called "Some Mud."

INSATIABLE INTEREST IN MANY ANTIQUITIES

No Difficulties Put in Way of Men Seeing the Sights There.

Montreal, Nov. 18.—The Gazette this morning publishes another letter from a correspondent with the Canadian contingent at Salisbury dated November 17, as follows:

"One of the Canadian soldiers observed today that Salisbury Plain is 'some mud' and the truth of it has to be admitted. Not only is the prevailing wet weather making life under canvas one prolonged series of discomforts, but it is seriously interfering with the training of the troops. The presence of huge mounds of mud and engines employed in the transportation of stores and war material is helping to make quarantine of the plain so that troops in most cases are kept in mud. Small wonder that all ranks are eagerly looking forward to the completion of the winter huts, which it is hoped will be ready about the 20th inst.

Canteens Become Wel.
The canteens have become 'well-liked' by the troops, and are open for limited periods twice daily, from noon till 1 p.m. and from 6:30 to 8 p.m. In some camps the beer retained must be consumed 'on the premises' and cannot be taken away to be drunk in the tents. The size and conduct of the canteens also is such that the danger of financial mismanagement is reduced to a minimum. Within the limited periods during which beer is sold in the narrow limits of the buildings in which it is sold and with hundreds of men awaiting their turn to get a drink, opportunities for abusing the privilege are difficult to find. A few cases have occurred in which soldiers have been arrested for endeavoring to smuggle liquor into the camps and sell the same clandestinely to the troops. When the official canteens are closed, but the military have handled the liquor over to the civil authorities and they have been prosecuted for selling liquor without a license, an offense the penalties for which are severe.

Garden of Eden.
"Nearly all the tents have been christened by the troops with names. 'The Garden of Eden,' another 'Paradise' and a third bears the more suggestive title of 'The Picnic Ground.' The tents are all borrowed from a popular hostelry in the neighborhood of Amhurst. On the outskirts of the camp, where the tents are the horse lines. Many of the horses have not yet regained fitness after the voyage, but the few which have died are an insignificant percentage of the total number brought from Canada. War material is being daily taken from Amhurst whither it has been brought from the transportation at Plymouth.

Confused by Currency.
"At first my fingers were hopelessly confused by the conversion of dollar notes and bills for larger amounts into English currency, but their difficulties in this direction are gradually being overcome.

"Officers and men experience no difficulty in obtaining leave from camp, whose conduct and attention to duty has been satisfactory. Often obtaining as much as seven days leave, with the possibility of an extension for one or two days more. Those who have no friends in this country to visit and who do not wish to take an interest in the antiquities of Salisbury Plain and towns in its vicinity, the British remain at Stonehenge, Salisbury cathedral, the ancient churches of Sherborne and Salisbury, and the Gilbert at the cross roads on the Devizes road."

Denies That British Troops Used Dumdums, BUT SAYS GERMANS DID
London, Nov. 18.—The war office has just issued a statement denying German allegations that the British troops have used dumdum or soft-pointed bullets, but maintaining that these kinds of missiles have been used by the Germans.

The statement describes the British German service ammunition as very similar, the bullets being pointed with steel and the ends of the bullets with copper nichel covering the core except at the base and conforming with the provisions of the Hague convention.

The statement continues: "There is, however, clear evidence that the British troops have not confined themselves solely to this unobjectionable ammunition. In both Tegehall and France have been proved to have used bullets with a soft core and an envelope not entirely covering the core with the tip of the bullet expanding and expressly prohibited by the Hague convention."

Morgan Not Guilty.
New York, Nov. 18.—The indictment charging Daniel M. Morgan, former treasurer of the United States and six others, with using the mails to defraud stock investors in connection with the operations of Jaro Plaz, was quashed today on motion of the United States district attorney who said that the testimony at Plaz's trial showed that Mr. Morgan and his six associates were not guilty.

NOTED PRESBYTERIANS WILL VISIT EDMONTON FOR WORK OF CHURCH

Five, Dr. Herridge, moderator of the general assembly, and Rev. Dr. Grant, general superintendent of home missions of the Presbyterian church, are paying visits to the west in the interest of the budget schemes of the church in Canada.

On Friday night they will be here and at eight o'clock there will be a mass meeting of Presbyterians in the First Presbyterian church to be addressed by both speakers, members of other denominations are cordially invited to be present.

On Sunday, Dr. Herridge will preach in Knox church in the morning, and in Robertson church in the evening. Dr. Grant will preach in First church in the morning and in Brackled church in the evening, and will be driven out to Patricia for an afternoon service. It is expected that every church in the presbytery will be well represented at the Friday night meeting.

Dr. Herridge is a polished scholar, and an orator of rare ability. He has been pastor of St. Andrew's church in the political capital of Canada for 20 years.

Dr. Grant, when a student, spent several mission fields, and worked the summer of 1906 at Nanaimo, in the Presbytery of Edmonton. He was for 11 years pastor of St. Andrew's church, Dawson City, and has had a wide experience in missionary work in Canada. By his statesmanship he has done much to systematize and strengthen the financial administration of the church, and to give impetus to the development of new fields. As a preacher he is strong and to the point.

MEANS OF PRODUCING PEACE WITH FEDS. PREVENTED BY CHAS. MURPHY

Blocks Sale of Cubs of Chas. Weeghman—Weeghman Declares it Means War Between Baseball Forces—Feds Invading Cleveland Next Year.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Developments affecting the Chicago National club—and through it the state of baseball war existing between the Federal League and parties to the National agreement—came first yesterday. First was the revelation that Charles Murphy, having been "owned" last winter, still has a large influence among those directing the club's affairs, then came Charles P. Taft's declaration of a break in Charles Weeghman's negotiations for the purchase of the Taft interests in the club and third was the first definite announcement that Roger Bresnahan would be manager of the club in 1915. Murphy's influence became apparent in the success of his fight to keep the club on their West side playing grounds, of which he is half owner, with Mr. Taft holding the other half. On returning from Cincinnati, Murphy declared there was no chance for Weeghman's buying into the National League club, and the club would soon after by Taft's announcement that negotiations were ended.

Finally, Murphy stated positively that Bresnahan would succeed Hank O'Day as West Side pilot. Partial confirmation of the Chicago National's intention of moving to the West side was given by a letter from Weeghman to Taft, asking for an extension until December 1 of an option on Taft's stock in the Chicago National. The letter was sent to Weeghman only after refusing to extend the time, but informing him that all negotiations looking toward his prospective purchase of the Chicago Nationals were at an end. When asked what the failure of Mr. Weeghman to purchase the Chicago Nationals would have on the supposed peace negotiations, Chairman August Herrmann, of the National Commission, said:

"I cannot tell as yet. I have no idea at this time."

Invading Cleveland
Cleveland, Nov. 18.—Whether Cleveland will have a Federal league club next year was discussed at a two-hour conference here yesterday by President Gilmore of the Federal league, H. Ward and W. Robertson, of the Brooklyn and Buffalo Federal league clubs, respectively, together with local men interested in the project. At the conclusion of the conference an inspection was made of the site for a ball park on which local Federal league enthusiasts have taken an option. That it is a question whether the expenditure of purchasing grounds and building a plant will make practicable the granting of a franchise to a Cleveland Federal league club, was said to have been one of the angles of the project discussed at the conference yesterday. The proposed grounds alone would cost $400,000, it is said.

Murphy Talks.
Chicago, Nov. 18.—The Chicago Nationals will remain on the West Side, and Chas. Weeghman never has had an option on any West side grounds in the club, according to a statement made by Chas. W. Murphy, former president of the club, who is to sell his holdings as collateral a block of the club stock. He returned today from Cincinnati, where he had been with Charles P. Taft, supposed to be the principal owner, reports that Weeghman would buy the Taft holdings. Murphy de-

BID FOR JOHNSON HAS BEEN RAISED TO FANCY FIGURE

Clark Griffith's Final Offer $16,000 For Season—Still Hesitating.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Walter Johnson's effort to stick up the Washington club of the American league for a record salary has brought a offer of a three-year contract at $16,000 a year from Clark Griffith. This is the latest bit of gossip fresh from the home of the Senators. If the Federals go above that they are welcome to the pitcher, but the $16,000 mark is as far as the Washington club cares to go. That means $4,800 for three years' work.

The negotiations between the great pitcher and the club have been going on since mid-season. Walter has steadfastly refused to give out the figures he is supposed to have received from the outflow and for this reason, he has Griffith and President Horn bidding against an unknown price. They have overlooked the injustice of his actions, and the $48,000 announced today is the limit. Four years ago Johnson made an ordinary salary. The next spring he was placed to a contract calling for $21,000 for three years. In 1914 this contract ran out, and he refused to let himself up for more than a season. He succeeded in getting a $2,000 raise for last season's work, bringing his total up to $23,000 for the year. Today he is hesitating about accepting an increase of $4,000 over that contract.

MELBOURNE INMAN IS WINNER OF BILLIARD MATCH FROM W. HOPPE
Culgary, Nov. 18.—Melbourne Inman and Willie Hoppe, billiard champions, concluded their Calgary match yesterday with Inman playing one of his very best games since the tour began. Inman's average break on the day's play at English billiards was 59. 1450 English billiards were played, 600 in the afternoon and 750 at night. In the Inman ten innings to negotiate the 600 and eleven to make the 750.

In the evening Inman made two fine breaks, one of 255 and another of 228.

M'KENZIE BOYS CAN NOT PLAY WITH MELVILLE

Amateur Hockey Commission Will Deal With Cases—Probably Condemn It.

So keen is the competition for players in the Saskatchewan hockey league for the coming season that it has attracted a lot of attention, too much, indeed, to meet with the approval of the towns that are eager to build up winning teams in order to wrest the Allan cup from the grasp of the Regina Aces.

Commencing with Melville, which hired the McKenzie boys of Kenora to reside in that city, not, of course, openly to play hockey, but to hold down some fat job the mania struck Moose Jaw, and they have secured a couple of the best hockey players from this city to bolster up the ranks of their amateur team. Similar importations are also under way, but it would appear now that a halt has been called, and rightly so.

According to a press dispatch from Winnipeg the McKenzie boys will not be allowed to play with Melville during the coming winter as the transaction smacks altogether too much of vellel professional. Their case will come up before the newly formed hockey commission at the Ottawa meeting on December 8, for consideration, and from present aspects the decision to be rendered will not meet with satisfaction in the Saskatchewan towns, that is except Regina.

FIST FIGHTERS IN ENGLAND ARE SERVING NATION

Criticism is Answered; Bandsman Blake and Many Others Have Enlisted.

London, Nov. 18.—Somebody's complaint about the lack of patriotism among the pugilists has brought out a spirited letter from a boxing editor who says that were he to give a list of all the professional boxers who have joined the colors since the declaration of war, he would have to fill several newspaper columns. He gives a few names of men who have exchanged the 24 foot ring for a less-circumferenced arena. They are worth recording: "Dick Smith, light heavyweight champion; Bandman Rice, challenger for that title; Handsome Blake, who may be said to have a really sound chance of attaining the middleweight belt; Pat O'Keefe, the actual holder; Tom McCormick and Johnny Busham, both of whom have been promised chances of contending for the welterweight title; Petty Officer, current leading heavyweight; Seaman Hayes, the famous featherweight, with a host of engagements; Symonds, of Plymouth, a practical certainty for flyweight honors."

CHANGES LIKELY BARROW CIRCUIT STATES LEADER

Will Buck Feds—Cities to Loose Franchises Interest of Game.

New York, Nov. 18.—Edward Barrow, president of the International league, predicts several changes in its circulation in the event that peace negotiations between organized baseball and the Federal league fall through as reports from the west indicated last night. Jersey City and Baltimore will both lose their franchises, according to Barrow, who stated that the Jersey City team will play in Brooklyn, and the Baltimore franchise will be shifted to either Syracuse, or Richmond, Va. If the change is made the Brooklyn Federals will be forced to contend against all-season baseball in Brooklyn, where as in the past season they only conflicted about 25 times with the Dodgers.

CALGARY TIGERS ARE PREPARING FOR RUGBY GAME WITH VARSITY

Weather in Southern City Has Eased Off a Bit and Game May Be Staged—Harrison Replaces Smith and Arnold Work is to Be Used at Half Back.

Calgary, Nov. 19.—The severe cold spell which followed the snow storm of last week and caused the postponement of the senior rugby championship game here next Saturday. There is just about the same amount of snow on the ground now as then, but the weather conditions are better and a flying wing on the defense and unless another severe storm sets in the game will be played this Saturday. The Tigers had a practice last night in preparation for the game and continue to sell tickets for the match. There have been but few changes in the team, Harrison taking Smith's place at outside wing, and Warh, being used as a half back on the offense and a flying wing on the defense. These are about the only differences.

CANADIANS FORM A STRONG HOCKEY TEAM IN ENGLAND

On Line-Up Are Many Who Figured in Championship Games in Past.

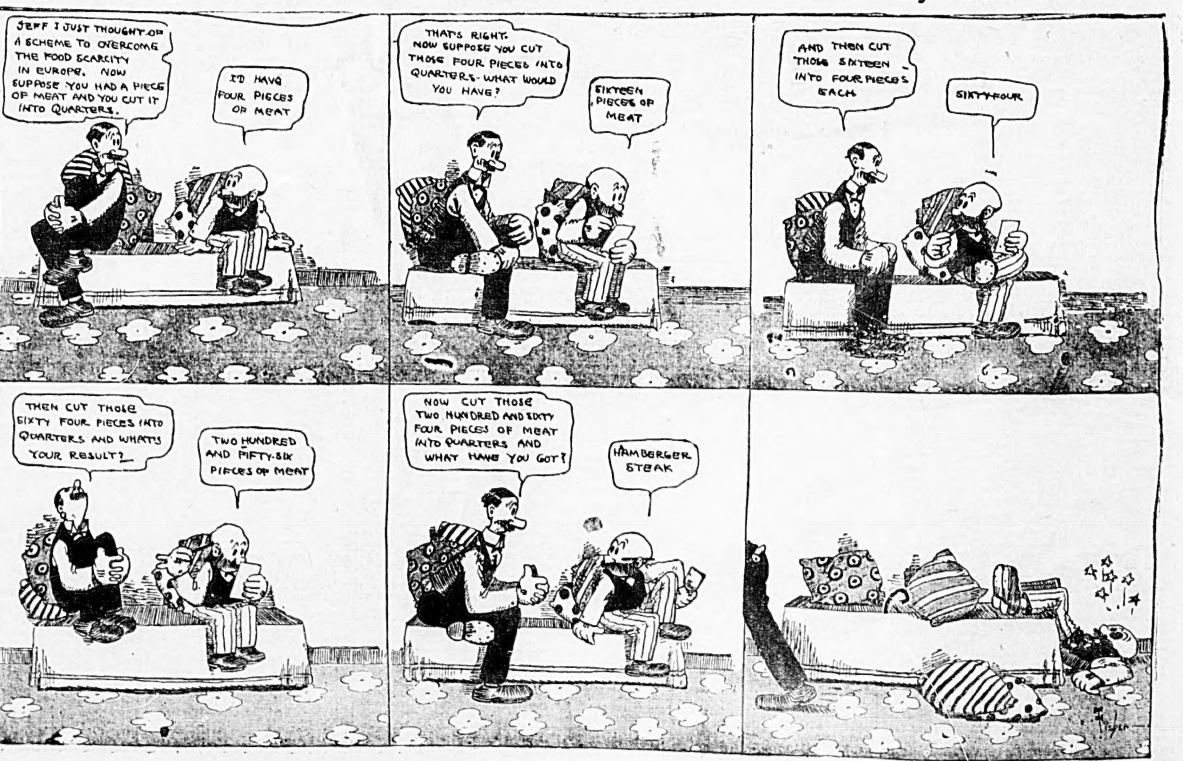

Toronto, Nov. 18.—A hockey team has been organized in the Canadian camp at Salisbury, according to a letter received here yesterday, in the expectation that the contingent will not go to the front until after Christmas. Geoffrey Taylor, a former Varsity athlete and a lieutenant in the 15th Highlanders, will manage the team. For goal, a choice must be made between Pauline, formerly of Queens, and Blackstock, who has played with B. M. C. and Varsity. Al Adamson, a track Winnipeg player, will cover over-cent, and Jack Adams, another western star, will take care of rover. Peter Calder, a Varsity man, will play "center," and for right and left wing respectively "found" "Scotty" "Doubie" "Scotty" and helped bring the Stanley cup to Toronto last year, and Hammy Baker, of Winnipeg, Victoria. "They hope for several games in London time."

WELL KNOWN CALGARY ATHLETE ENLISTS IN SECOND CONTINGENT

Calgary, Nov. 18.—Dan McLeod, captain of the Chinook Lacrosse club, has enlisted for service with the Canadian contingent. On his last visit to the mother country, Dan was a member of the Canadian lacrosse contingent, and with his team mates battled on the London stadium for the highest lacrosse honors of the world. He has been a resident of Calgary for nine years and has always taken a prominent part in various branches of athletics, lacrosse and hockey being his special hobbies. Last winter he was a favorite official in the inter-city series of the A.A.T.L.A. and official referee of play in all the important games both here and at the Edmonton arena.

New York city expenses next year will cost for $264,158.41.
